Johnson & Johnson and all its operating companies are committed to workforce diversity, creating equity across our systems, and fostering and advancing a culture of inclusion. Our culture of belonging is about uniting different backgrounds, beliefs, abilities and experiences in an environment where everyone feels valued and works together to achieve meaningful outcomes. Our Credo outlines our responsibility to create an inclusive environment and respect the dignity and diversity of all people. It guides how we engage with one another and inspires us to take purposeful action to support the patients, consumers, customers, employees and communities we serve. This makes diversity, equity and inclusion (DEI) everyone’s responsibility—that of every employee around the globe.

Our Diversity, Equity and Inclusion (DEI) Policy, along with our Global Enterprise DEI Strategy, sets out the principles and requirements by which Johnson & Johnson will enhance DEI throughout the organization. The Policy is applicable—but not limited—to our practices and policies on recruitment and selection; compensation and benefits; professional development and training; promotions; transfers; social and recreational programs; layoffs; terminations; and the ongoing development of a work environment built on the premise of gender and diversity equity. The Policy applies to all employees and anyone conducting work on behalf of Johnson & Johnson or any of its operating companies.

The Johnson & Johnson Office of Diversity, Equity & Inclusion is responsible for building and leading the Company’s global evidence-based strategy to advance DEI. Our Global DEI strategy is based on four strategic pillars designed to accelerate how we bring innovative healthcare solutions to an increasingly diverse world.

Our Global DEI strategy is guided by internal and external insights, global best practices and continual employee feedback, which together remind the Company that while diversity changes by location, inclusion is the same everywhere. Our approach allows us to continually evaluate our Global DEI strategy to ensure it remains relevant to meet the changing demands of the communities we serve.

The four pillars within the Company’s evidence-based strategy are intentionally interconnected and must work together.
We are accelerating our global culture of inclusion where every individual belongs. The outcome is to foster a culture of belonging aligned around a global inclusion strategy that reflects local nuances and regional priorities across the globe.

It is also critical to embed DEI into our business strategies to better serve the needs of our diverse patients, consumers and customers. We believe this approach positions our businesses to deliver on our promise to solve the world’s most challenging health issues.

We are continuing our work to build a workforce that reflects the diversity of our communities. We seek to create a globally diverse workforce that better reflects the vast range of communities we serve, ensuring that we really understand and serve global and local markets.

We are also elevating our focus on achieving equitable access and outcomes. This requires tailoring our tools, resources and mindsets to meet the unique needs of individuals, so everyone has a fair and equitable opportunity to participate and contribute to their fullest potential at Johnson & Johnson.
